Capital increase expands financial flex; new ticketing systems in US run well

A successfully completed accelerated bookbuilding has handed the group additional financial flexibility just as operating momentum builds, and we have refreshed our model accordingly while leaving the investment case firmly intact. Through the placement on 24 June, 1m new shares were issued at EUR 46.95 with the exclusion of pre-emption rights, lifting the share count by around 10% and generating gross proceeds of close to EUR 47m, with the company committing to a six-month lock-up. Management intends to deploy the proceeds to strengthen working capital, affording greater flexibility in funding large-scale projects such as the recently won New South Wales contract in Australia, and to pursue strategic opportunities. Coming on the back of a record start to the year and a landmark order win, the move reads as a deliberate build-up of growth firepower.

Our operational forecasts are unchanged. The upcoming Q2 figures due in mid-August should again sit in growth territory, even if they come in a little below the record Q1, which had benefited from catch-up effects on revenues originally slated for Q4 2025. Taken together, a first half of robust top-line and earnings growth provides a solid platform for meeting the full-year guidance, which we expect management to confirm.

Recent project delivery underpins our positive stance. The two large North American ticketing systems, which went live on time in early 2026 in Atlanta and Houston, have run smoothly under the heavy passenger loads of the football World Cup, leaving customers satisfied and reinforcing the group's execution credentials. Smooth delivery under such peak demand is a positive reference, the kind that tends to convert into follow-on orders. Combined with a well-filled order book after the Australian award, this keeps us confident in the company's medium-term growth trajectory. Beyond Atlanta and Houston, init technology is also deployed by public transportation providers in the US host cities of Dallas, Los Angeles and Seattle and in the Canadian cities of Toronto and Vancouver, covering 7 of the 16 World Cup locations; across 51 of the 104 matches, passengers are carried by operators running init systems. Such breadth underscores the group's footprint and expertise.

We have factored the enlarged share base and the EUR 47m of proceeds into our model. EPS forecasts and the DCF fair value face modest dilution, partly offset by higher interest income and lower beta inputs that reflect enhanced stock liquidity and financial strength. With the balance sheet now carrying greater strategic optionality and operating delivery firmly on track, we reiterate our Buy rating with a revised price target of EUR 60, pointing to attractive upside.

Company Background

- Init is a leading supplier of hardware and software solutions for public transportation and covers a vast part of the value creation of its customers.
- Founded in 1983 as a university spin-off, init provides its services to >1,400 public transport providers worldwide with ~40 locations and ~1,600 employees.
- 65-75% of group sales are usually generated with long-standing existing customers and projects and consist of spare part sales, maintenance and other after sales services.
- The product portfolio includes electronic ticketing (45% of sales), intermodal transport control systems (25%), automated passenger counting (20%) and timetable planning and dispatching (5%).

Competitive Quality

- Revenue growth is driven by structural mega-trends like smart city mobility concepts, urbanisation and growing environmental awareness.
- Focused business model with highly scalable modular platform solutions and low capex requirements.
- Long-standing relationships with more than 1,400 customers worldwide yield significant cross-selling potential.
- Large installed base generates a profitable stream of recurring revenues: >300 APC systems, >130 ICTS/RTPI, >120 personnel assignments, >100 planning and >140 ticketing systems, more than 200,000 equipped vehicles.
- Deep integration into its clients' processes along the value chain creates significant switching costs for init's customers.

Free Cash Flow Value Potential

Warburg Research's valuation tool "FCF Value Potential" reflects the ability of the company to generate sustainable free cash flows. It is based on the "FCF potential" - a FCF "ex growth" figure - which assumes unchanged working capital and pure maintenance capex. A value indication is derived via the perpetuity of a given year's "FCF potential" with consideration of the weighted costs of capital. The fluctuating value indications over time add a timing element to the DCF model (our preferred valuation tool).

This research report ("investment recommendation") was prepared by the Warburg Research GmbH and is passed on by the Münchmeyer Petersen Capital Markets GmbH. Warburg Research GmbH since December 1, 2025 is a fully owned subsidiary of the Münchmeyer Petersen Capital Markets GmbH (MPCM). This research report is intended solely for the recipient and may not be passed on to another company without their prior consent, regardless of whether the company is part of the same corporation or not. It contains selected information and does not purport to be complete. The investment recommendation is based on publicly available information and data ("information") believed to be accurate and complete. Warburg Research GmbH neither examines the information for accuracy and completeness, nor guarantees its accuracy and completeness. Possible errors or incompleteness of the information do not constitute grounds for liability of MPCM or Warburg Research GmbH for damages of any kind whatsoever, and MPCM and Warburg Research GmbH are not liable for indirect and/or direct and/or consequential damages. In particular, neither MPCM nor Warburg Research GmbH are liable for the statements, plans or other details contained in these investment recommendations concerning the examined companies, their affiliated companies, strategies, economic situations, market and competitive situations, regulatory environment, etc. Although due care has been taken in compiling this investment recommendation, it cannot be excluded that it is incomplete or contains errors. MPCM and Warburg Research GmbH, their shareholders and employees are not liable for the accuracy and completeness of the statements, estimations and the conclusions derived from the information contained in this investment recommendation. Provided a investment recommendation is being transmitted in connection with an existing contractual relationship, i.e. financial advisory or similar services, the liability of MPCM and Warburg Research GmbH shall be restricted to gross negligence and wilful misconduct. In case of failure in essential tasks, MPCM and Warburg Research GmbH are liable for normal negligence. In any case, the liability of MPCM and Warburg Research GmbH is limited to typical, expectable damages. This investment recommendation does not constitute an offer or a solicitation of an offer for the purchase or sale of any security. Partners, directors or employees of MPCM, Warburg Research GmbH or affiliated companies may serve in a position of responsibility, i.e. on the board of directors of companies mentioned in the report. Opinions expressed in this investment recommendation are subject to change without notice. The views expressed in this research report accurately reflect the research analyst's personal views about the subject securities and issuers. Unless otherwise specified in the research report, no part of the research analyst's compensation was, is, or will be directly or indirectly related to the specific recommendations or views contained in the research report. DISCLOSURE ACCORDING TO §85 OF THE GERMAN SECURITIES TRADING ACT (WPHG), MAR AND MIFID II INCL. COMMISSION DELEGATED REGULATION (EU) 2016/958 AND (EU) 2017/565

The valuation underlying the investment recommendation for the respective company analysed is based on generally accepted and widely used methods of fundamental analysis, such as e.g. DCF Model, Free Cash Flow Value Potential, NAV, Peer Group Comparison or Sum of the Parts Model (see also <https://disclaimer.mp-capitalmarkets.com/disclaimer.htm#Valuation>). The result of this fundamental valuation is modified to take into consideration the analyst's assessment as regards the expected development of investor sentiment and its impact on the share price.

Independent of the applied valuation methods, there is the risk that the price target will not be met, for instance because of unforeseen changes in demand for the company's products, changes in management, technology, economic development, interest rate development, operating and/or material costs, competitive pressure, supervisory law, exchange rate, tax rate etc. For investments in foreign markets and instruments there are further risks, generally based on exchange rate changes or changes in political and social conditions.

The respective commentary reflects the opinion of the relevant author at the point in time of its compilation. A change in the fundamental factors underlying the valuation can mean that the valuation is subsequently no longer accurate. Whether, or in what time frame, an update of this commentary follows is not determined in advance.

Additional internal and organisational arrangements to prevent or to deal with conflicts of interest have been implemented. Among these are the spatial separation of Warburg Research GmbH from MPCM and the creation of areas of confidentiality. This prevents the exchange of information, which could form the basis of conflicts of interest for Warburg Research GmbH in terms of the analysed issuers or their financial instruments.

The analysts of Warburg Research GmbH or MPCM do not receive a gratuity – directly or indirectly – from the investment banking activities of MPCM, MPC Münchmeyer Petersen & Co. GmbH or affiliated companies.

All prices of financial instruments given in this investment recommendation are the closing prices on the last stock-market trading day before the publication date stated, unless another point in time is explicitly stated.

Warburg Research GmbH is subject to the supervision of the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority, BaFin.
